9 eggs (or fewer, if you want). Use eggs that are a week or two old – not too fresh – less than $1

Dill juice from a jar of pickles (32 oz jar for 9 eggs) – $0 – leftover water $0

Put eggs in a saucepan and add enough cold water to cover eggs. Turn stove on to high, and bring eggs to a boil. Once they are boiling, reduce heat to medium and let eggs cook another 15 minutes. Remove eggs from stove, drain off the hot water, and add cold water to the saucepan to cool the eggs. Peel the eggs, rinse them off, and toss them in the jar of dill juice. If you need more juice to cover the eggs, just add enough water to cover the eggs. Let the eggs pickle for 24 hours in your refrigerator. Eat them over the next week or so. The longer they stay in the juice, the stronger the dill eggs are. After you eat all of the eggs, you can use the same juice to make another batch of eggs!

This is a quick, easy, and surprisingly tasty recipe for lunch or dinner.

2–3 packages store brand macaroni and cheese (3 – 4 packages for .99)
1/4 cup butter/margarine per package of macaroni used (?)
1/4 cup milk per package of macaroni used (?)
1 package hot dogs (on sale for 2 for $1.00)

Boil Macaroni as suggested on package. About 2 minutes into the macaroni boiling, add cut up hot dogs and allow to cook until both macaroni and hot dogs are done.

Drain macaroni and hot dogs in collander and return to pot.

Add butter, milk and the cheese packets from the boxes of macaroni and stir over very low heat until well blended.

Pot Roast

4 pounds beef roast (I prefer bottom round, usually purchased on sale at $1.60 lb, total about $6.40)

1 tablespoon vegetable oil (.05)

1/2 cup soy sauce (.50)

2 cups leftover coffee, regular or decaf (.10)

4 bay leaves (bulk or dollar store, .15)

2 minced garlic cloves (.15)

1 teaspoon oregano (.10)

2 large onions, sliced (.40)

Night before I heat fry pan, add oil, and brown roast. In a crockpot I mix half onions and rest of ingredients. Add roast and top with rest of onions. Start on low setting. In morning I then open and baste top of onions and roast well. Close and continue cooking until dinner.

Serve with hard rolls (usually purchased from the day old rack at a grocery store for $1.00) and pan juices for dipping. Add salad or vegetable dish. Beef will be falling apart.

Raspberry Chicken

Red Beans & Rice

1 lb. smoked sausage (about $2.00 or less if it's on sale)
1 can (10 ounces) tomatoes and green chilies (about $.60 store brand)
2 cans (16 ounces each) red beans or dark red kidney beans, undrained (about $.50 each store brand)
1 can (10 3/4 ounces) cream of mushroom soup (about $.60 store brand)
3/4 tsp Creole seasoning (miniscule amount unless you have to buy a new container; we keep some on hand all the time)
4 –5 cups cooked white rice (about $.50)

Cut up sausage into 1 inch chunks. Brown sausage in 10 inch skillet.
Add tomatoes, beans, soup, and seasoning and heat through. Add cooked rice and heat through again, if necessary.

Rice and Raison Custard

1 cup of pre cooked rice (.20 if you buy the big bag)
1/2 cup Raisins (.40 also bought in bulk)
1 tsp. vanilla (too small to calculate)
2 eggs (.15)
1/4 cup sugar, white or brown (.20)
1/4 cup milk /fresh canned or powdered (varies depending on what's used)

Mix all ingredients in a pan and cook at 325F till a knife comes out of the center clean (about 20–30 min depending on how deep your pan is). If I have left over coconut I add it to the recipe. Also If you use it for a desert I've found that drizzling some corn syrup or molasses over the top makes it very yummy or, if you prefer, sprinkle with 1 tsp. powdered sugar.

Salisbury Steak

10 1/2 oz. can cream of mushroom soup

1 cup water

1 lb. ground chuck

1/3 cup fine bread crumbs

Salmon Burgers

1 14.5 can salmon –bones and skin removed (1.00 on sale)
1 garlic clove, minced or pressed (2 cents)
1/2 –3/4 cup bread, cracker or cornflake crumbs (free?)
chopped onion to taste (5 cents)
1/4 cup mayonnaise with optional horseradish (10 cents)
1 egg (7 cents)
Dash of Old Bay seasoning or lemon pepper or oregano, thyme, and basil

4 toasted hamburger buns (40 cents)
lettuce and tomato (20 cents)

Mix everything except buns, lettuce and tomato together. Shape into burgers – cook in nonstick frying pan and a little oil on medium high until brown and crisp on the bottom, flip over and brown other side. Serve on buns with lettuce tomato, and other burger fixings (also good as salmon cheeseburgers with American cheese and the old bay seasoning, or salmon Parmesan burgers with mozzarella and a dab of tomato sauce – in which case use the oregano, thyme and basil combo of spices and add extra garlic if desired). Cheap, nutritious, can be customized lots of ways with spices -- and kids like ‘em.

Salmon Cakes

1 can salmon ($2/can)
1/4 cup relish (about 10 cents)
1/4 cup mayonnaise (about 10 cents)
1 diced carrot or celery stick (about 10 cents)
One lemon (about 30 cents)
1/4 cup corn meal (about 10 cents)
vegetable oil spray (negligible, about 10 cents?)

This is quick and healthy. Combine salmon, relish, mayonnaise, carrot/celery. Zest the lemon and mix zest and juice of lemon with salmon mixture. Form into patties. I use this quick technique: Sprinkle a little corn meal in the bottom of a quarter cup measuring cup. Add salmon mixture almost to top. Top with more corn meal. You end up with about 10–12 perfectly sized, corn meal coated salmon cakes. Pan "fry" on medium to medium high about 2–3 minutes per side. With a salad and a loaf of bread, a great meal.

P.S. You can take the bones out of the canned salmon but I keep them in; they taste fine and provide calcium. A yummy way to get those healthy omega oils (from the salmon) in your diet.

Total cost about $2.80 for entire recipe, 70 cents per person.
